

Each department is segmented through a virtual LAN with each VLAN having one subnet of 32 ranges. Each department has 25 users each.

The Research and Development is a separate network of 25 users isolated from the corporate network but 25 users can communicate with each other.

